

BENEFITS OF MEMBERSHIP

- Power in numbers gives strength to your voice with the premier organizational advocate for the Perkins Loan Program
- Workgroups address the topics related to Perkins, Higher Education Act, Stafford, National Direct, Nursing and Health Professions loan programs. Become involved at the grass-roots level.
- COHEAO communicates closely with the Department of Education, the Department of Health & Human Services, and congressional members to ensure that campus-based loan programs are successful. Your voice is heard by the right people.
- Committees, task forces and workgroups ensure involvement for all members.
- COHEAO provides our members with a very informative website; members can find easy access to industry and regulatory updates, seminar information, training modules, membership information and much more. As a member of COHEAO you can access the COHEAO Torch through the website or receive it electronically. Our website allows you to stay on top of student loan initiatives so we as an industry can be proactive rather than reactive.
- Annual and mid-year meetings, workshops and teleconferences.

ACCESS AND INFORMATION

Joining COHEAO will give your organization access and information on Congress and its staff.

The Congress and U.S. Department of Education look to COHEAO as the authoritative voice on Perkins Loans.

COHEAO's grassroots and legislative activities have led the way in preserving the Perkins Student Loan Program.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

COHEAO provides professional development and training opportunities related to the administration of loan and tuition receivables, debt management and other programs.

CONFERENCES

For those interested in learning about higher education financing and the Federal Perkins Student Loan Program, COHEAO's conferences are a must. We host two major conferences each year, attracting members of Congress, the U.S. Department of Education, and others who are active in the education policy-making process.
